Agreement for Faculty Exchange

Between

The Trustees of Indiana University
On behalf of the School of Public and Environmental Affairs

And

Indian Institute of Technology Bombay

The Trustees of Indiana University ("Indiana University"), on behalf of the School of Public and Environmental Affairs ("SPEA"), established in the State of Indiana, United States of America, and the Indian Institute of Technology Bombay ("IIT Bombay"), established in Mumbai, India (each a "party" and collectively, the "parties"), to facilitate their mutual objectives in research and education and to build upon the Memorandum of Understanding in place between the two institutions, enter into this Agreement for Faculty Exchange on this 1st day of December, 2017 (the "Effective Date") and hereby agree as follows:

1. Indiana University SPEA and IIT Bombay shall be the offices responsible for the administration of this exchange program.

2. The parties will focus on enhancing the international capacity of their faculties and encourage the development of joint research projects and other collaborative activities among their faculties on topics of mutual interest.

3. The parties may each select and nominate up to two (2) faculty members per academic year from relevant branches of learning to visit the partner institution as exchange participants. The length of each visit will be approximately one month, determined on a case by case basis and by mutual agreement. Each host institution will determine whether recommended faculty members are acceptable.

4. Dossiers, including a brief biographical account and a statement of purpose for the exchange period at the host university, must be received six months prior to participation to allow time for visas and documentation. Indiana University also requires documentation that verifies the exchange participant from IIT Bombay has the requisite English proficiency for successful participation in the exchange program.

5. Expenses for round-trip air travel, board, lodging, and health insurance will be the responsibility of the home institution or the exchange participant.

6. The host university will provide assistance to the exchange participant in finding appropriate lodging. The host university will also provide study and research privileges equivalent to those available to resident faculty members or graduate students.

7. Exchange participants are expected to study and work according to a mutually agreed upon plan for professional improvement and research. Specific arrangements for special facilities, laboratories, local research, and the like will be agreed upon by the parties in advance.

8. The parties acknowledge and agree that any such activity must be organized and administered in accordance with applicable law and the relevant policies and procedures of each party.

9. The parties may explore other opportunities for collaboration, which may include, but are not limited to: (a) the sharing of academic materials and other relevant information and (b) the development of joint research projects.

10. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of five (5) years from the Effective Date; however, either Party, at its discretion, may terminate this Agreement during its term by giving notice at least six (6) months in advance of the intended termination date.

11. This Agreement may be amended or renewed by a written agreement signed by an authorized representative of each party.

12. Each party shall send communications or notices pertaining to this Agreement to the other party at the relevant address set forth below or to such other address designated by that other party through written notice.

13. Each party grants, for the term of this Agreement, a limited, non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use its logo and name (the "Trademarks"), to the other party, solely for the promotion of this Agreement and any joint programs and projects developed hereunder. Each party agrees that each time it reproduces and/or republishes the other party's Trademarks it shall do so in a form identical to that provided by each party, without alteration. Each party agrees to use the other party's Trademarks in a careful and prudent manner. Except as otherwise set forth in this paragraph, each party agrees not to use the other party's name, trademarks, or other intellectual property in any manner whatsoever without prior written consent in each instance. Requests pertaining to Indiana University shall be emailed to the IU Office of Licensing &

Trademarks at iulogo@iu.edu. The parties acknowledge by this Agreement, that they acquire no right, title or interest in and to the other party's Trademarks whatsoever other than to use the Trademarks in accordance with the term and conditions hereof. The use of each party's Trademarks may not be assigned, transferred, shared or divided in any manner by the other party without the prior written consent in each instance.

14. Both parties subscribe to the policy of Equal Opportunity and will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, sexual orientation, age, ethnicity, religion or national origin. Both parties shall abide by these principles in the administration of this Agreement and neither institution shall impose criteria by the exchange of participants which would violate the principles of non-discrimination.

15. In the event of a dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, the parties shall establish a committee of six (6) senior representatives, three (3) appointed by each party, to attempt to resolve the dispute.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have caused this Agreement to be duly executed.
